DEEL Newsletter Winter 2013

Welcome to the Winter newsletter for teachers and supporters of DEEL. We have created many themed boxes which include many of our much loved resources and look forward to seeing you in the near future as you plan a global dimension to your classroom work and seek to learn more about the world around you.

January 31st Chinese New Year. Year of the Horse. 年節

We have some fine resources to support the celebration of Chinese New Year.

All boxed, making them easy to pick up, there is everything you might need in KS1 and 2 to learn about China today using DVD, colourful artefacts, display items as well as books.

Funded opportunities for Chinese Language Assistants

The British Council through a partnerships with Hanban (Office of Chinese Language Council International), HSBC and the Welsh Government, are offering funding opportunities to schools to gain the support of a Chinese Language Assistant. The assistant's place can be fully funded and requires the completion of a competitive application process. Click here to learn more. straight after half term in February. The focus is on abolishing unfair bananas for good and there are downloadable resources, including presentations, recipes and quizzes available.

Fairtrade Fortnight 2014 Monday 24 February to Sunday 9 March.
